

THESIS DEFENSE DAYS

FALL 2024 | GRIFFIS 201

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3RD

8:30 AM - 10:00 AM - Naoufel Ghannami

A Systematic Approach to Vehicle Suspension Modeling: Integrating Experimental Testing and Simulation-Based Validation

Thesis Director: John Ball

3:30 PM - 5:00 PM - Erin Quinn

Sir Nicholas: Chivalric Tropes and Dickens's Critique of the Aristocracy in Nicholas Nickleby

Thesis Director: Shalyn Claggett

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4TH

8:30 AM - 10:00 AM - Kelsei Harris

Use of Data Analytical Tools and Its Impact on the Accounting Industry

Thesis Director: Kyle Smith

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM - Kourtney Barfield

Parenting Practices and Attachment Levels in Relation to Externalizing Behaviors in Children Raised by Nonparental Caregivers

Thesis Director: Danielle Nadorff

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM - Paige Miller

The Relations between the Socioeconomic Status of Custodial Grandparents, their Wellbeing, and their Perceived Social Support

Thesis Director: Danielle Nadorff

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 6TH

9:00 AM - 10:30 AM - Luke Salisbury

Using Additive Manufacturing to Characterize Effects of Sparse Infill Density and Sparse Infill Pattern on the Compressive Properties of Short Strand Carbon Fiber Infused PETG

Thesis Director: Wayne Huberty